

Directions: Use the excerpt from The Cricket in Times Square to fill in the character web.

- The center oval represents a single character.
- The outer ovals are details of characterization used by the author.
- You can start by filling in the web for Mario.

When you have finished the web, answer the question at the bottom.

What character traits can you infer about the character from your Character Web?

---

---

---

---